Etienne Comon will leave Athora Netherlands at the end of his term

Athora Netherlands N.V. (Athora Netherlands) announces today that Etienne Comon will leave per 1 July 2025 as Chief Capital and Investment Officer and member of the Executive Board of Athora Netherlands and will assume the role of Chief Investment Officer at Athora Group.

Etienne joined Athora Netherlands in July 2021 as CCIO and member of the Executive Board and will leave at the end of his term.

The focused strategy, with strong progress and enhanced governance at Athora Netherlands in the past four years allows us to reduce the Executive Committee from 6 to 5 members pending DNB approval. The investment office will become an integral part of the CFO Portfolio under the leadership of Jan-Hendrik Erasmus, our CFO and Executive Board member. Director Investments Boudewijn Blok, who heads up Athora Netherlands's investment office, will report to Jan-Hendrik.

Roderick Munsters, Chair of the Supervisory Board: "Etienne played a key role in the turnaround of Athora Netherlands into a profitable and financially strong pension and life insurer that is perfectly positioned to capture the growth opportunities in the market. He has led the diligent repositioning of our investment portfolio that resulted in higher risk adjusted returns and strongly improved capital generation while maintaining a strong and stable solvency ratio. We are very thankful for his valuable contribution to the success of Athora Netherlands and wish him all the best in his new role at Athora Group."

Etienne Comon: "It has been an honour to serve as a member of the Executive Board and I am proud of what we have achieved. The past four years at Athora Netherlands have been a great journey and I would like to sincerely thank all my colleagues at Athora Netherlands. It was a great privilege to lead such a professional investment team and I look forward to working with my colleagues at Athora Group."
